

The Cultural Council of Birmingham Bloomfield

invites nominations for the 2023 Birmingham Bloomfield Cultural Arts Awards

Our 28th Year

Nomination for a literary, visual or performing artist, volunteer, arts educator or philanthropist who has made a significant impact in the communities of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area (Beverly Hills, Bingham Farms, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township and Franklin.)

Directions for Nominating:

Nomination must be attached to this form and may total no more than five pages (not including internet links):

- Nomination must include letters in support of nominee from two different people.
- Nomination should include a page explaining why the nominee's efforts and accomplishments are noteworthy and how the nominee has used his/her talents to affect positive change in the lives of individuals in the community and/or the community at large.
- Nomination should include a one-page brief biography or description of the recipient.
- Nominations may include internet links to further support the nomination.

Name of Nominee _____

Address _____ City _____ Zip _____

Phone (H) _____ Phone (C) _____ Email _____

Nomination Submitted and Supported By:

Name #1 _____ Name #2 _____

Address _____ Address _____

City _____ City _____

Zip _____ Zip _____

Email _____ Email _____

Phone _____ Phone _____

Nominations are due by July 24, 2023

<https://culturalcouncilbirminghambloomfield.org>

Email nominations to marcy1fish@gmail.com or fax to (866) 403-6794 attn: M. Fisher

This award is Co-sponsored by:

The Cultural Council of Birmingham Bloomfield promotes and supports the cultural life in our community, collaborating with other community organizations to honor citizens and businesses that have had an impact on the arts, raising funds to support and ensure the sculpture program "Birmingham Art in Public Spaces", and works to illuminate the many cultural activities and resources available across the Birmingham/Bloomfield area.

